

Sunday between 21 August and 27 August (Proper 21)

Psalm 124

$\text{♩} = 104$

Our help is from the Lord, who made heav'n and earth.

D.C.

If the Lord had not been on our side, let Israel now · say;
if the Lord had not been on our side, when enemies rose up a·gainst_us;
then would they have swallowed us up a·live
in their fierce anger · toward us;

Then would the waters have overwhelmed us, and the torrent gone · over_us;
then would the raging waters have gone · over_us.
Blessed be the · Lord!
he has not given us over to be a prey for · their teeth.

We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the · fowler;
the snare is broken, and we have es·caped.
Our help is in the name of the · Lord,
the maker of heaven · and earth.