

Second Sunday of Advent

Psalm 85:1-2, 8-13

You have been gracious to your land, O · Lord,
you have restored the good fortune of · Jacob.
You have forgiven the iniquity of your · people
and blotted out all · their sins.

I will listen to what the Lord God is · saying,
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to · him.
Truly, his salvation is very near to those who · fear_him,
that his glory may dwell in · our land.

Mercy and truth have · met_together;
righteousness and peace have · kissed_each_other.
Truth shall spring up from the · earth,
and righteousness shall look down · from heaven.

The Lord will indeed grant pros·-perity,
and our land will yield its · increase.
Righteousness shall go be·-fore_him,
and peace shall be a pathway · for_his feet.
