

Sunday between 13 November and 19 November (Proper 33-T)

Psalm 90:1-8, 12

$\text{♩} = 96$

In eve - ry age, O Lord, you have been our ref-uge.

D.C.

Lord, you have · been our refuge from one generation · to an-other.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the · earth were born,
from age to age · you are God.

You turn us back to the · dust and say,
"Go back, O · child of earth."
For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when · it is past and like a watch · in the night.

You sweep us away · like a dream;
we fade away suddenly · like the grass.
In the morning it is · green and flourishes;
in the evening it is · dried_up and withered.

For we consume away in · your dis-pleasure;
we are afraid because of your wrathful · in-dig-nation.
Our iniquities you have · set before you,
and our secret sins in the · light_of your countenance.

1 - So teach us to · number our days
4 - that we may apply our · hearts to wisdom.
