

Christmas, Proper III

Psalm 98

Break forth to-gether in sing-ing! — The Lord is come!

Sing to the Lord a new · song,
for he has done marvellous · things.
With his right hand and his · holy arm
has he won for him · -self the victory.

The Lord has made known his · victory;
his righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the · nations.
He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the · house_of Israel, and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory · of our God.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all you · lands;
lift up your voice, rejoice, and · sing.
Sing to the Lord · with the harp,
with the harp and the · voice of song.

With trumpets and the sound of the · horn
shout with joy before the King, the · Lord.
Let the sea make a noise and all that · is in_it,
the lands and those who · dwell there-in.

Let the rivers clap their · hands,
and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord, when he comes to judge the · earth.
In righteousness shall he · judge_the world and the · peoples with equity.
